Acting Governor Cooper, accompanied by his private secretary, returned the official call of General Breckenridge yesterday afternoon.

The Advertiser team, after several practice games, has decided to play the Republican team which sent in a challenge some moons ago.

Mrs. E. A. Jacobsen, wife of the Custom House Inspector, returned from the Colonies yesterday after a most pleasant visit with friends.

The band will give a concert on Mahe Island at the usual time this evening. An excellent program has been arranged.

Captain Merry went over on the other side of this island yesterday afternoon for a short visit with the Irwins at their country home.

Mrs. Hudson, the California artist who has won such fame for herself, is anticipating an exhibition of some of her paintings in a short time from now.

W. H. Rice, W. O. Smith, A. L. Young, S. W. Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Jules Titcomb were among the departures for Kauai ports in the W. J. Hall yesterday afternoon.

Master George Richardson and his sister, Miss Ruth, children of Mrs. Jules Richardson of Hilo, left in the China yesterday to continue their studies on the mainland.

Dr. J. Atcherly, formerly of the firm of Atcherly & Miner has returned from the country and opened an office on Fort street. Old patients and friends will be welcomed.

Don't forget Camarinos of the California Fruit Market when you fruit and vegetables. He always has on hand a fresh supply of both California and Island fruits. Telephone Main 378.

Among the departures for Maui ports in the Claudine yesterday afternoon were the following: R. B. Berg, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Mrs. W. F. Mossman, J. W. Hall, H. Baugh, E. A. P. Newcomb and C. E. Copeland.

The Hawaiian Amalgamated Confederation of Labor is the latest proposition for Honolulu. The object of the men who are pushing the project along is to elevate the condition of the labor in the Islands and to bring about union in all labor doings.

Ten building permits were issued yesterday, showing the lively doings in that field. Most of the permits were for smaller buildings. Among the permits was one issued to H. L. Kerr who intends to erect a two-story brick building on Nuuanu street between King and Queen.

J. W. Erwin gave another of his delightful stereopticon lectures at the Hawaiian hotel last evening. There were a large number of people present to listen to the instructive words and see the excellent lantern slides prepared by Mr. Erwin. At about the middle of the lecture, the rain came down in quite a shower, making it necessary for the people outside to take to cover. After a very short time, the rain ceased and then the lecture went on.

While J. W. Erwin of the Post Office Department was here he made in the neighborhood of 200 pictures of interesting places in and about Honolulu. Among this collection is a picture of the Hawaiian Hotel by night. Mr. Erwin expected to present this during his lecture from the piazza of the hotel last evening, but was unable to do so on account of not having been able to put on the finishing touches. The excellent pictures secured by Mr. Erwin will do a very great deal toward giving Hawaii a good name abroad.
